

Fact / Opinion Cards

Use as a game, center or review task

Penguins live in Antarctica.

The temperatures in Antarctica are below freezing.

Penguins do not live at the North Pole.

Penguins are cute and friendly animals.

Antarctica is an interesting place to read about in school.

Being an explorer is the best job for when you grow up.

Emperor penguins are my favorite kind of penguins.

Penguins balance their eggs on their feet as they walk to keep them off of the ice.

Emperor penguins are the largest of all the penguins.

Penguin fathers are the best fathers to their young of all the animals in the wild.

Penguins swim in cold ocean water to find their food.

Antarctica is a beautiful place with all the snow and blue water.

Penguins can swim approximately 15 miles per hour through the water.

King penguins are the most important penguins in the animal kingdom.

Penguins cannot breathe underwater.

I think penguins are great at holding their breath under water.

A thick layer of blubber and fluffy feathers help keep penguins warm in the polar region.

Watching penguins swim is a lot of fun.